How might people in the community know you?	I attended Colorado A and M and finished at U of WA. I taught Home Economics in Juneau

Quilting Background

When did you begin quilting and why?	I was born with needles and threads before I was learning to read. My grandmothers taught me to do embroidery and some knitting. I have a quilt I made at an early age. I taught myself to use a treadle sewing machine. My interest in quilting began when I retired and joined this Guild.
How do you like to express yourself through quilting?	I like the variety in quilting!
What do you do with your quilts?	I give them to family. I love to make quilts! I made a Christmas wall quilt for my kids and won best of show!
