JUNE 2026

THANK YOU EVERYONE FOR ALL YOUR WORK ON THE QUILT SHOW!!! It was SO much fun ... and it seems like it was so long ago already. I hope you're all gearing up for next year's smaller show.

Our next big item? Robin Long will be here on September 26-27 for a two day class and trunk show teaching her method of Mariner's Star. The class is limited to 20 and costs $75 (plus supplies), so sign up soon! Stephanie can take your registration.

Val Horner's daughter has donated a U-haul full of fabric to the Guild. Stay tuned for plans ...

I've been asked if I scour the internet in all my free time looking for all the educational opportunities I list. The answer? No, I don't, but I receive a lot of emails daily that I read pretty carefully for anything that might be coming up somewhere. I figure if any of us is traveling (or wants to travel somewhere), if we think about it early enough, we might be able to take in something somewhere that strikes our interest. I know I'd like to go to some of these opportunities, but I'd need a boatload of cash to get to all of them.

Dixie

QUILT SHOW 2026: It's a wrap! Thank you, Quilt Show crew: Christine Moleski, Marcie Benvin, Mindy Henricksen and Sheila Box! I hope you were able to come to the show to see all the beautiful quilts! We have some very talented quilters.

SALES TABLE COMMENTS:

A Big Thank You to Everyone who helped with the Sales Table at the Quilt Show. Terry and I are very thankful for those of you who signed up to work at the Tables: besides Terry and me; Bev Schutt; Cindy Schmiede; Jackie Polasky; JoAnn Steining; Cherry Eckland; Nancy Slook; Karen Paulick; Robbie Stell. A huge thank you also to all of you who donated items to sell. Your donations of time and items made it a huge success, and we are very grateful.

Thanks, Laurie Adamson and Terry Bonnell

TREASURER'S COMMENTS:

The budget for the sales table was $3,000 and the total revenue was $3,078

The budget for the silent auction was $5,000 and the total revenue was $5,529.

The budget for donations was $800, and the total donated was $868.48.

We did fall short on sponsorship, with a budget of $3,5000 and total revenue of $2,850.01

With an increase in revenue, the credit card fees were higher than normal, but our cost for ribbons was greatly reduced.

The rental of Centennial Hall was higher than expected, a budget of $5,000 but cost was $8,271. And the Quilt show judge costs was higher than expected too, a budget of $2,000 but a cost of $2,661.85.

While we have a few outstanding invoices, the quilt show was in the black by $1,043.06.

EDUCATION:

Robin Ruth Design: WE ARE ON ROBIN'S 2026 CALENDAR! Robin Long of Robin Ruth Design will be in Juneau in September 26-27, 2026 to teach her method of Mariner's compass. Class size will be limited to 20 with a wait list for additional people. Sign-up is $75. It will be necessary to purchase her ruler and book.

As has been pointed out, Robin's Mariner's compasses come with both fat and skinny points. This month, I would like to share Robin's fat Trip Around the Sun:

These patterns require Robin's Original Fat Robin 45* Mariner's Compass Ruler and Book. Robin offers a variety of free patterns at robinruthdesign.com.

KRISTA MOSER will be in Juneau in 2027. Additional information will be shared as the event gets closer.

UFOs: SIGN UP DEADLINE IS THIS MONTH! Sandra has UFO forms. They are also on the website. They must be filled out and given to her by June. The form requires each quilter to pledge whatever they wish payable to the Guild if they do not finish their quilt. If the quilt is finished, their names go into a drawing in October. Sandra encouraged all of us to fill out a form and challenge ourselves to complete some UFOs.

JUNE BIRTHDAYS:

Mary Lou Bavard
Cynthia Schmiede

Susan Clutton
Susan Sutton

Kelly McLean
Sheryl Weinberg

GUILD COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECTS: Pillowcases and comfort quilts

Comfort quilts: Thank you, Comfort Quilt crew: Stephanie Allison, Louise Miller, Ann Lind and more.

1. Any fully completed quilt will be accepted as a comfort quilt.
2. If the Guild is to quilt a comfort quilt top, the maximum size is 49" x 60". Our 3-yard quilt kits fall within that parameter. This size maximizes the longarm machine's ability to quilt two tops at the same time.
3. Ann is the keeper of backing and batting and will pair tops with backing/labels and batting for longarm quilters. If you want to quilt your own quilt, or if your quilt is over- or under-sized and you will be quilting it, Ann can cut batting/backing for you. Your quilt sandwich will not be basted by a longarmer.
4. Finished quilt tops go to Ann for batting/backing/labels and to be distributed to a longarmer for quilting. Quilt tops that the Guild will be quilting can come to Ann at meetings.
5. Quilts ready for binding will come back to the next meeting with the label and the trimmings from the back for the binding.
6. Louise Miller will collect finished quilts and deliver them to the agencies when needed.
7. Call Stephanie Allison (907-723-3092) or Louise Miller (907-465-7021) if you have questions.
8. Judy Morley is training Laura Kelly and Ann-Marie Martin to quilt on her longarm.

Pillowcases: Shannon Dillely currently heads up our pillowcase project. We regularly donate to AWARE, JYC (incarcerated youth), Housing First and the Pioneer Home. We have pillowcase kits upstairs at the church or you can make some from your stash. The burrito method is a tried and true method with instructions on our website. We hope to soon sponsor a class on making pillowcases by serger/overlocker. Please keep in mind that our website states all pillowcases must have encased/closed seams ... so little (or big) fingers can't pull them apart.

UFOs: UFO = UnFinished Object ... also known as PIGS (projects in grocery sacks) or PHD (projects half done). It could be large. It could be small. It could be something you recently made. Or it could be that very first real quilt that I made in 2014 that still needs to be quilted, bound and labeled. It could even be that finished quilt that still needs a label!

Sandra Bleicher has been in charge of UFO contracts in the past. To encourage us to finish those UFOs, we need to fill out the UFO form which is on our website and return half of the form Sandra by June. When we finish an item, we need to show it to Sandra or bring it to a meeting for Show and Tell where we can all celebrate that it is finished. All completed UFOs are entered into a drawing at the end of the contract time (September meeting). If we don't finish that UFO by September? We pay the Guild whatever amount we pledged on our contract(s). If you are entering more than one quilt in the UFO challenge, Sandra encourages us to put only one quilt on a form so we are not paying the Guild for multiple items in addition to what we have finished.

SOV Food Bank: Please remember to bring food to Shepherd of the Valley's food bank when you come to our meetings. Our rent for use of the meeting room and upstairs storage is reduced with the expectation that we will provide at least $50 worth of food to the food bank each month. Attending members have been doing quite well with contributions. It would be wonderful for members who are not able to attend meetings, but still have the benefit of our space rental, to contribute occasionally. Ann puts a lunch box on the front table during meetings for donations that she then turns over to the church.

CCQ Zipper Pulls: The beautiful enamel zipper pulls from William Spear are available in blue or black. They will be sold to CCQ members for $15 each at CCQ Business Meetings. FOUND BEFORE THE QUILT SHOW!

Newsletter items are due the first Saturday of each month. Please send Show and Tell photos, articles and other items to dixiepeach@mac.com. Please remember Dixie is the editor not the article writer.

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES:

RainTree Quilting offers classes monthly ranging from a finishing workshop with Deb Riddle, a discussion group with Deb and kids' camps during school breaks. Other classes offered in the past include AccuQuilt projects, Electric Quilt 8, bag making, garment making and a variety of quilting classes. You can shop online and see class offerings at raintreequilting.com.

RainTree carries Amanda Murphy quilting rulers. If you are a fan, you need to know that when stocks are depleted, the following Amanda Murphy rulers will be retired and unavailable: Lollipop 1 & 2, Mini Lollipop, Hexagon 1 & 2, Petal 1 & 2, Leaf 1 & 2, Semicircle 3, Every Sets Plume 2 & 3 only, Feather Spine, Ribbon Candy 2, Baptist Fan, Every Star, Every Line, Jubilee, Triangle in a Square and 6 ½" Block Trimmer.

FREE OPPORTUNITIES:

1. American Quilter's Society: americanquilter.com; lots of ideas, projects, tutorials and more; many additional ideas and projects in the members only section.
2. Benartex fabrics: benartex.com; free quilt patterns, virtual fabric shows and some tutorials.
3. The International Quilt Museum is located at the University of Nebraska – Lincoln. It has the world's largest publicly held collection of quilts and related items. The museum celebrates the artistic significance of quilts through exhibitions, global research, and diverse programs.
4. Quilt Alliance: quiltalliance.org; inspirational and informative articles, recordings and more; Quilt Alliance believes that quilts are historical documents containing important information about the life and times of the maker. To keep this history from fading away, we work to document, preserve and share the stories of quilts and their makers.
5. Studio Art Quilt Associates (SAQA) works to promote the art quilt as a fine art medium. SAQA is a dynamic and active global community. Our 4,300+ members are artists, curators, collectors, and art professionals who are passionate about this art form.
6. Surface Design Association promotes textile art through publications, exhibitions, and events. SDA provides a platform for exchanging ideas, learning, and collaboration and encourages critical dialogue about fiber art. At the heart of SDA is its quarterly publication, Surface Design Journal, which brings readers an array of concepts, processes, and materials.

VIRTUAL and ZOOM OPPORTUNITIES:

1. Brittany at Lo and Behold Stitchery offers tutorials on her blog at loandbeholdstitchery.com. This month she is featuring pin basting your quilt. Find all of her tips and tricks under Blog, and then go to Tutorials. She also offers free patterns and lots of other topics.
2. Jodie Barrows – Square in a Square
3. Christina Cameli has taught Free Motion Quilting for over a decade and offers monthly, quarterly and annual memberships to beginners on up who want to quilt primarily on their domestic machines. Check her out at freemotioncircle.com. I just ordered her fabrics from Spoonflower for $15/yard and am going to tackle meandering again. You can find her on Spoonflower by searching for afewscraps under Artist.
4. CT Publishing offers a blog, courses, events and free projects. Go to ctpub.com to browse.
5. Cultured Expressions offers a variety of virtual classes some of which include: Ankara String Quilt, Ankara Fabric Flowers, Corded Cabin Block, Pillow Perfection, Fat Quarter Pocket Pouch, Ankara Clutch, AnkaraPaj and Slow Stitch Tutorial. Go to <https://culturedexpressions.podia.com> to see the class offerings and replay of classes that were live.

6. Electric Quilt 8 offers both virtual and in person classes. Deb Riddle has also offered EQ8 classes at RainTree. For information, go to classes.electricquilt.com or contact RainTree if you'd like to see classes offered again locally.
7. Pattern please! offers ornament kits and free patterns. Browse at patternplease.com.
8. Stitchin' Post in Sisters, OR offers both virtual and in person classes. Details at stitchinpost.com
9. Six hour virtual zoom Monster Mash Free Motion Quilting workshop: information at <https://orbitalquilting.com/fmq-mm/>
10. JUNE 24-27: Quiltfest Virtual Summer Schoolhouse; information at QuiltFest.com; Maria Shell and many other instructors (zoom)
11. October 14-17: Quiltfest Virtual Schoolhouse #15; information at quiltfest.com (zoom)

MINUTES TO 4-18-26 MEETING

CAPITAL CITY QUILTERS APRIL 18, 2026 DRAFT Meeting Minutes

PRESENT:

OFFICERS: President Ann Lind, Treasurer Stephanie Allison and Vice President Marcie Benvin.

MEMBERS: Dixie Alms, Louise Miller, Jackie Polasky, Jan Jerue, Karen Paulick, Karen Smith, Bev Schutt, Darcy Stetson, Nancy Slook, Laurie Adamson, Judy Morley, Terry Bonnell, Cynthia Schmiede, Ann-Marie Martin, Cherry Ecklund, Robbie Stell, JoAnn Steininger, Ella Fish, Marné Provost, Sheila Box, Nancy Eiler, Kare Robinson, Christine Moleski and Mindy Henricksen.

ZOOM: Clare Brooks and Heather Ramseth.

PROXY: Sandra Bleicher.

President Ann called the meeting to order at 10:30 am.

The minutes to the March meeting were approved as corrected. (JoAnn Steininger arrived.)

Food bank: The lunch box on the front table is for donations to the church's food bank. Our rent stipulates our support of SOV's food bank by food or financial donation.

Treasurer's report: Stephanie said we have received checks for about $1200 for Quilt Show sponsorships. We have also received donations in memory of Loretta Mosley. (Ella Fish and Marné Provost arrived. Heather Ramseth is on Zoom.)

Education: Marcie reminded everyone that Robin Ruth will teach Mariner's Compasses in September. We are trying to set a stripology class at the end of October or in early November.

Comfort quilts: Louise said we have received no requests in the last month. (Sheila Box and Nancy Eiler arrived.) Ann-Marie found a comfort quilt that was made in 2021 at Salvation Army. It will be displayed at the Quilt Show. Judy Morley has a picture catalog of all the comfort quilts that have been donated.

Pillowcase report: Shannon is not here today. Ann reported that we made 67 pillowcases at the sew-in after last month's meeting. Jan Jerue took a bunch home and has returned them finished to Karen Paulick who will get them to Shannon when she returns. (Christine Moleski arrived.)

UFO: Sandra is not here today. You can find the UFO form on the website. Fill it out and get a portion of the form to Sandra before June. Projects must be completed by the October meeting, or you owe your pledge to the Guild.

SECRETARY: Ann announced that we still need a secretary ... if anyone is interested.

NEW MEMBERS: Welcome to our new members Ella Fish, Nancy Eiler and Kare Robinson.

GIVE-AWAYS: Ann brought in three hoops that are on the table and are up for grabs. She isn't sure what they are. If no one wants them, Ann-Marie will take them to Salvation Army.

ORNAMENTS: Bev Schutt has bag of ornament kits; birds, gnomes, medallions with elves and trees with sequins. Bev is willing to spearhead a group to make these ornaments for the Quilt Show Sales Table. Bev will arrange a room at the Valley Library (hopefully the large conference room which allows food and drink). Bev said she needs help on how to make the birds. Ann will send out an email after a room has been reserved.

QUILT SHOW:

1. Mindy Henricksen has demo sign-up sheets.
2. Sheila Box has front door sign-up sheets and sign-up sheets for members to walk around the show.
3. Laurie Adamson has sign-up sheets for the Sales table.
4. Marcie said she is accumulating things for the Sales and Auction Tables that have been dropped off.
5. JoAnn Steininger shared the little boxes she has made. They are easy and take two 10" squares of fabric. They take about 20 minutes. She also shared the small fish bag she made. She said they take a little longer to make. In addition, she has other ideas such as a little mop you step on to wipe up spills made from terry cloth.
6. Marcie has forms for donations to the Silent Auction. She mentioned that the Sales Table, Auction Table and sponsorships are going towards paying what we owe Centennial Hall.
7. Sheila asked about the check-in process. Quilts must have a label (that will be covered during judging) and a sleeve.
8. Ann has yet to see the form and asked what information goes on the quilt registration form: your name, name of the quilt, quilt dimensions, quilt owner (if it is not you), was it professionally quilted and a description. (Mindy Henricksen arrived)
9. If you are a professional quilter, answer "no" to the question about your quilt being professionally quilted so it can be judged for quilting.
10. Louise asked if there is a way to see what she has entered. Christine said the program should send you a message saying your quilt has been entered. She will check to see that it is working.
11. The Quilt Show poster will get its final proofing this weekend. Once it has completed that process, we will all receive a digital copy of the poster. We have been asked to share it on social media and with all our friends.
12. What is the deadline to enter quilts into the show? May 4.
13. Everyone needs to volunteer for something.
14. Jackie Polasky has made a prize quilt for the winning entry into the Seek and Find contest. Everyone will get a page of 10 questions that can be answered by walking around the show hall. A drawing will be held of all the winning entries for Jackie's quilt.
15. We will have the "Leave the Quilter a Comment" sheet available.
16. Guild member voting on your favorite quilt in each category will be held on Friday only.
17. Dixie announced that the ribbons are finished. Members helping Dixie and Debbie Germain with ribbons were Jan Jerue, Geri Fudge and Karen Smith.
18. Quilt check-in is 8-10 am Wednesday, May 13, at the Egan Room in Centennial Hall. If you are unable to deliver your quilt(s) during that time frame, someone else may carpool your quilts to Centennial Hall.

19. Quilts will be hung from 3-6 pm on Thursday, May 14, and from 8 am to 12 noon on Friday, May 15.
20. Quilt Show opens at noon on Friday, May 15, and runs through 4 pm Sunday, May 17.
21. Quilts must be picked up between 4-5 pm Sunday, May 17.
22. Heather Ramseth asked what the deadline is for member biographies. Marcie is working on it and is hoping for a May 4 deadline.
23. Thank you, everyone, for all your help and hard work!

PRESIDENT'S CHALLENGE: President's Challenge quilts are to be turned in with all other quilts during the 8-10 am check-in time on Wednesday, May 13. If you are not turning in an entry to the President's Challenge, your fat quarter needs to be returned to the Guild since the Guild paid for the fabric. If you plan to keep the unused fat quarter, you owe the Guild $4. Sandra has the list of fat quarters that were checked out.

FREE OR FOR SALE: Judy Morley has sewing machine to give away or to sell.

CCQ ZIPPER PULLS: We haven't been able to find them.

APRIL BIRTHDAYS: Ann is the only one here today, and we had a lot of April birthdays. Happy birthday this month, Ann!

SHOW AND TELL:

Meeting adjourned at 11:22 am.

Respectfully submitted,
Dixie Alms, Newsletter Editor and Acting Secretary
