CCQ Member Biography

Name	Ann Lind
Occupation	Longarm Quilter
How might people in the community know you?	I was a paralegal for 20 years, had a baby and did daycare for 10-ish years, and have been a foster parent for 15 years and counting.

Quilting Background

When did you begin quilting and why?	It all started with my daughter attending a Diva Wallet class. I saw the snowman table runner and pretty much never left Raintree.
How do you like to express yourself through quilting?	I love to make charity quilts. When I make quilts for people there is a specific connection I try to make between the person and quilt.
What do you do with your quilts?	When I see a pattern/fabric that reminds me of someone, I do my best to make it for them.
Describe your first quilt and when you made it?	It was a 9-patch, snowball mystery quilt taught by Bonnie Goodrich with blueberry fabric in 2019. I gave it to a foster child for Christmas.
