

Your Friends, Your Neighbors, Your Community

CCQ Member Biography

Name	Genelle Massey
Occupation	Retired as former Special Assistant to Chief Prosecutor for Criminal Division
How might people in the community know you?	People in the community might know her through her work or her activities such as church or softball.

Quilting Background

When did you begin quilting and why?	Genelle began quilting when “her mother sat her down and taught her” (1965-1970).
How do you like to express yourself through quilting?	Genelle enjoys belonging to the guild and meeting the women. She likes to needle turn, trapunto, collage, wool applique, and hand quilting. She also likes learning from classes through the guild.
What do you do with your quilts?	She mainly gives them away to family and friends.
Describe your first quilt and when you made it?

This is an example of wool applique (Credit: Sue Spargo)

