PRESIDENT'S LETTER

February 2024

January was filled with snow and more snow. With a large sprinkling of rain. Lots of indoor time. Also a record number of snow days for kids. Wow - what a month. Hope everyone was able to get lots of sewing in. My teens were able to finish their quilts they started during Christmas break. See pictures below.

We were just shy of a quorum during our January meeting. Even if you can't attend in person, please try to zoom in so we can get some business done.

Our sew in was fun. We had various activities going on. Three of us made project bags - great techniques were learned. We had fabric cutting, ornament making and various personal projects happening. Great day!

After February's meeting we will have various projects happening as well. Shannon Dilley has donated many pillow cases so it's time to make more. Bring your serger if you can help make a few. We have plenty of kits. I will play a French seam pillow case YouTube video for those of us that need that education and reminder. But you can also make them your preferred way. In addition to pillow cases, there will be quilt show sales table sewing and personal projects to finish. Don't forget those UFO contracts are due the March meeting! Please bring snacks!

Look forward to seeing you at our next meeting February 17 at 10:30 at Shepard of the Valley Church. Don't forget your donation to the Church's food bank.

Ann

UFO Contracts are due at the March meeting!

Quilt Show 2024: The committee welcomes everyone to attend our meetings. The next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, February 6, at 5:00 at Raydene's house, 4453 Eyelet Court.

We are pursuing sponsorships (beginning at $200) and welcome your suggestions and assistance of businesses to approach. Individuals and members are also welcome to purchase sponsorships. The sponsorship form is now on the website under the Members Only section. All completed forms need to go to Raydene so she can follow up with the potential sponsors. As of right now, the following businesses are sponsoring the Quilt Show: Capital Embroidery, Juneau Pizza, Busting Out Boutique, Lupine Leather and Beads, Nugget Alaska Outfitters, and Pleasants Plumbing and Heating. We expect other businesses to sponsor us but have not yet received their checks.

We are trying to get the Quilt Show entry form up on our website as quickly as we can.

PRESIDENT'S CHALLENGE!

Snowman and cupcake fabric has defined Ann's quilting journey so let's see what you can do with it! Ann said there are essentially no rules because rules stifle creativity. It can be anything you want - table topper, wall hanging, mug rug, placemat, project bag, zipper bag. All items finished before the quilt show can be proudly displayed at the show. Have some fun!

SOV Food Bank: Please remember to bring food to Shepherd of the Valley's food bank when you come to our meetings. Our rent for storage and use of the meeting room is reduced with the expectation that we will provide at least $50 worth of food to the food bank each month. Attending members have been doing quite well with contributions. It would be wonderful for members who are not able to attend meetings, but still have the benefit of our space rental, to contribute occasionally.

CCQ Zipper Pulls: The beautiful enamel zipper pulls from William Spear are available in blue or black. They will be sold to CCQ members for $15 each at CCQ Business Meetings.

Newsletter items are due the first Saturday of each month. Please send Show and Tell photos, articles and other items to dixiepeach@mac.com. Please remember Dixie is the editor not the article writer.

SOV driveway has moved around the corner on Keegan Street.

February birthdays:

Heidi Brodersen    Ann Marie Martin    Jan Nardone    Jackie Swanson

UPCOMING EVENTS:

FEBRUARY 6: 5:00 pm: Quilt show committee meeting at Raydene's house, 4453 Eyelet Court

FEBRUARY 8-12: CCQ retreat at Shrine of St. Therese

FEBRUARY 17: 9 am-midnight: CCQ Open Sew

FEBRUARY 17: 10:30 am: CCQ Meeting at Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church; the driveway to the parking lot has moved to 8198 Keegan Street.

SHOW AND TELL (on next page)

The valentines Sandra Bleicher made for her grandchildren.

Sandra bound one of Judy Morley's comfort Quilts.

Sandra made this quilt from blocks that Bev Schutt won from her Arizona Guild members.

Kelly McLean made this for Nancy Slook after she was hospitalized.

Judy Macnak made this quilt from a jelly roll she won at the Christmas Party. For the back, she used scraps from other quilts she has made.

Judy wrapped clothesline with fabric and made this basket.

Melissa Morgan bound this comfort quilt.

Nancy Krehlik bound these three comfort quilts.

Nancy Krehlik made this quilt from scraps and will give it to her daughter to gift to a friend who is suffering from cancer.

Nancy Krehlik finished this 10 year project.

More on next page. I'm through fighting with trying to get the pictures/captions to format properly on the pages.

Mindy Henrickson bound this comfort quilt.

One of Ann's girls made this puff quilt.

One of Ann's boys made this rag quilt.

Dixie has been making reversible aprons for the Quilt Show sales table.
