QUILT SHOW ... QUILT SHOW ... QUILT SHOW ...

Ann is swamped in addition to having been tackled by daily life, and I'm trying to finish all the quilts I entered in the show. A number of us will be at the show all day each day. Please come spend as much time as possible with us helping (wo)man all the stations. We need your help! And ... we like spending time with all of you.

Dixie

PS – we're still in need of auction items: small quilts, wall hangings and/or larger items.

Sunday, April 14th, was the last day to enter Quilts into the show! It seems most of us are procrastinators - I just entered mine. Dixie don't forget! (I didn't forget. Now? I need to finish them.)

We need members to volunteer their time to work at the show. It's a fun time to visit with the public and share a topic with them that we are passionate about. The public response is a joy. I have had so many people express eagerness to see the show this year. Please see Laurie Adamson for volunteer slots.

Any donations to the Sales Table or for the Silent Auction are greatly appreciated. The sales of these items go a long way towards offsetting the high cost of putting on the show. See Laurie or Marcie.

Quilt check-in will be at the Egan Room at Centennial Hall on Wednesday May 1st, from noon to 2:00pm. If you are unable to make that time, please arrange with a friend to bring the quilts down for you.

Our main display area for this year's show is "Today's Quilts – an Alaskan Perspective". Centennial Hall has not had enough pipe and drape for us to fill the whole facility, so for this display we utilize some creative methods to show off quilts. As in the last show, we are looking to borrow quilt ladders or quilt stands from members. This is greatly appreciated as well as the Alaskan themed quilts. Please bring any stands to borrow as well as Alaska Quilts to display to the show check-in. Don't forget to include the form on the website.

Thank you once again to our sponsors! Capital Embroidery, Juneau Pizza, Busting Out Boutique, Lupine Leather and Beads, Nugget Alaska Outfitters, Pleasants Plumbing and Heating, Changing Tides; Shaw Dental, Mindy Shaw, DDS; HECLA Greens Creek, Shoe Fly, Annie Kaills, Geri Fudge, Alaska Litho/Copyworks, Beth & Dudley Field, The Fudge Company, Mendenhall Mall, Debbie Germain; John Krehlik, MD, Alaska's Sleep Doctor; RainTree Quilting; Riverfront Quilting, Ann Lind; and Alaska Seaplanes. Please be sure to thank these businesses and individuals for their support!

Lastly, it's time to start making those dates with your buddies! Invite them to come see the show while you're there or even ask your sweet mother-in-law to lunch and the show. It's a great sharing time.
