CCQ Member Biography

Name	Shannon Dilley
Occupation	Director, Division of Juvenile Justice
How might people in the community know you?	I was raised in Juneau and also raised my children here. I love attending youth sporting events and have worked with many social service agencies.

Quilting Background

When did you begin quilting and why?	I started quilting in my 20s but made my first quilt when I was 32. I was inspired by my mother in-law, Candy Dilley, who was a very talented hand quilter.
How do you like to express yourself through quilting?	I love everything about quilts and telling a story with the patterns and colors.
What do you do with your quilts?	Gifts for family and others.
Do you have a favorite block?	No, but I really enjoy block of the month events where I can learn new techniques.
