How might people in the community know you?	She received Early Childhood Teacher of the Year. They might also know her through her church Chapel By the Lake, where she also taught Sunday School.

Quilting Background

When did you begin quilting and why?
Judy always sewed her own clothes starting at age 12. She also knit and did artsy things. About 20 years ago, after retiring, she decided to learn quilting.

How do you like to express yourself through quilting?
Judy likes to try a variety of quilting styles. She avoids orange and brown.

What do you do with your quilts?
She made some as gifts, including a quilt for her daughter's wedding and portrait quilts for each of her 3 grandkids.

Describe your first quilt and when you made it?
The first were right after Janine started the quilt store. She took a class and made a windmill quilt that she still has.

Her favorite blocks are from Judy Hopkins Books
